

Benita Creacy, CFP®

Benita has been working in the Financial Services industry since 2000. She holds a Series 7 and a Series 66 as well as licenses in Life and Variable insurance. In addition, Benita serves as an adjunct professor at the College for Financial Planning.

Benita's desire to provide the best services and advice for her clients served as the catalyst in obtaining the highly regarded CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ designation. Before working in the financial services industry she was a college financial aid director and a financial aid consultant for colleges and universities across the United States working with families and their college finances for over 20 years.

Benita has a degree from the Robinson School of Business at Georgia State University and an Art degree from the Art Institute of Atlanta. Her free time is spent with her three children and volunteering in the community. Currently serving as the Treasurer of the Parents' Council of the Cherry Creek School District, a Member of the Board of Directors for the Cherry Creek School Foundation and a Committee member of the Planned Giving/Permanent Endowment Fund at St. Andrew United Methodist Church.